An immeasurable amount of suffering and injury to the human race, is due to the ignorant violation of physiological laws by the youth of our land. Ruinous practices are indulged in, through ignorance of the inevitable injury to constitution and health which surely follows. By every young man, the divine injunction, "Know Thyself," should be well heeded. To assist such in acquiring a knowledge of themselves and of how to preserve health, and to sanut those pernicious and most destructive practices, to which so many fall victims, as well as to reclaim and point out the means of relief and cure to any who may unwittingly have violated Nature's laws, and are already suffering the dire consequences, an association of medical gentlemen have carefully prepared a little book which is replete with useful information to every young man. It will be sent to any address, securely scaled from observation in a plain envelope, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association of 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of ten cents in stamps (for postage), if enclosed with this notice. "And I was told that the Germans were sorry for what they had done, but gentlemen, I could never understand. Capt. Jacob Roderick, one of the best conductors on the B. & O. Railroad, has given us the following incident which well illustrates one of the characteristics of the greatest soldier of modern times. During the war, Mr. R. was quite young and was one of Gen. Lee's couriers. While the Confederate army was in Pennsylvania he was carrying a dispatch to Gen. Lee. He was informed that the Gen. had his headquarters in a large field of timothy. The courier rode around two sides of the field, but seeing no entrance hastily threw several rails of the fence, jumped his horse over it and was loping through the timothy when he saw in another part of the field the tall form of Gen. Lee, who motioned to him to go back and go around in a certain direction. He found an entrance through a barn yard, and when he reached the General, he mildly reproved him, saying, " never destroy anything unnecessarily. If we cannot use this grass, the people living here will have use for it."—Shen. Herald.

Three mont's before our first child my wife suffered so from cramps and pains she could not get in or out of the house without help, and was often in bed two or three days at a time. I obtained a bottle of "Mothers Friend," and after the first application pains and cramps ceased. She continued to use the remedy and suffered no serious inconvenience until the hour of confinement—at which time she suffered but little pain—her recovery was rapid and complete—in fact, she suffered no pain after birth. Her friends say they never saw anything to equal her case. Truly "Mothers' Friend" is a blessing to expectant inothers, and my wife shall never be without it. Eufsula, Ala., Dec. 8, 1894. E.E.
